100 Days to Make You Brilliant Programs

Enthusiastic Employee

This program gives those new to role the tools to make a difference as soon as possible.

We understand that when you first start your job you do so with real enthusiasm to meet the high expectations from multiple areas and that initially it can be difficult to manage them.

We enable you to meet those expectations by communicating with purpose, build great relationships and fulfil the potential your new organisation have seen when they hired you.

Organisations are helped by the fact the new employees are ready to collaborate, bring the new ideas that will help the company grow and are able to be brilliant as quickly as possible.

The learning outcomes for this program are as follows:

- * State how to build rapport and create trust in the workplace.
- * Understand what it means to be part of a highly effective team.
- * Understand your motivations when things are going well and what happens when in conflict.
- * Improve your listening skills and develop questioning techniques.
- * Be assertive and understand the rights of all parties in workplace relationships.
- * Develop your influencing and negotiating skills in order to have your ideas heard.
- * Create an action plan that sets out key objectives which gives you the focus to become effective quicker.
